Aims of the Society

To promote and publicise the Shire Horse

As shire horse enthusiasts we would like to see an increase in the numbers of purebred shires and an increase in their use for ploughing, riding and showing.

The aim is not just to breed shires but to breed good quality, healthy animals. Shire horses are gentle giants and make great all round horses turning their hooves to many different disciplines, there are shire horses competing all over the country under saddle, in harness and in hand.

Once you have befriended these beautiful animals you will be as passionate about them as we are.

Did you know Shire horses were used at both world wars, pulling heavy artillery?

The Shire Horse Society Silver Spoon is awarded to the Best Mare or Filly and Best Stallion at the Show.
